The family of Donald Wilts would like to express our gratitude to all who sent cards and flowers after his passing. A special thank you to Pastor Wiese for the beautiful funeral service, your sermon was such a tribute to Dad. Also thanks to Lorri and Shelly for sharing your musical talents.

We have been overwhelmed with the many memorials, the food, kindness, and support for all of his family. A huge thank you to the women that served ice cream, chocolate and coffee Tuesday night and the work unit that served the lunch on Wednesday. Many thanks to the members of Trinity for all the love, prayers, and support you have given him. He loved his church family.
God Bless You All.

Your kindness and thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated and will always be remembered.
The family of Donald Wilts

Brief Order for Confession & Forgiveness

Because we know sin does not reign, we boldly confess our sins before God and one another.

Pause for silence and reflection.

God of righteousness, our ideas, conversations, and behaviors often cause more harm than good. We are regularly pushed and pulled by the temptation to sin. But we know that your righteousness will prevail. Forgive what we have done or have failed to do. Reconcile us to your love each and every day. Amen.

We live in a world hand-crafted by a loving God. In our sin God does not abandon us or leave us to flounder. Instead our God offers mercy and grace. Receive the entire forgiveness of all your sins, a gift from God. You have been made new by the saving work of Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

7th Sunday of Easter

9:00am

Greeting

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Prayer of the Day

Let us Pray: God of resurrection, you have promised new life to all who believe. Make us believers and show us how to live into this new life. We pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

First Reading: Romans 6:1-14

What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? ²By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? ³Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

⁵For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. ⁶We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. ⁷For whoever has died is freed from sin. ⁸But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. ¹⁰The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. ¹¹So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

¹²Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. ¹³No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 79:8-13

“Read Responsively”

⁸ Do not remember against us the iniquities of our ancestors; let your compassion come speedily to meet us, for we are brought very low.

⁹ Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name’s sake.

¹⁰ Why should the nations say, ‘Where is their God?’ Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of your servants be known among the nations before our eyes.

¹¹ Let the groans of the prisoners come before you; according to your great power preserve those doomed to die.

¹² Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbors the taunts with which they taunted you, O Lord!

¹³ Then we your people, the flock of your pasture, will give thanks to you forever; from generation to generation we will recount your praise.

Alleluia Verse – LBW, pg. 83

Gospel: Matthew 6:19-24

The gospel according to Matthew, the 6th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁹‘Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; ²⁰but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

²²‘The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light; ²³but if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

²⁴‘No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ.
